

CFN ACCOMPLISHMENTS & OBJECTIVES

Long-term Objectives	Intermediate Goals	Accomplishments
----- Education and Outreach -----
Increase awareness of naturalism and its positive personal and social consequences	Give talks locally and nationally on naturalism; maintain national and international speakers bureau	Presentations : Ethical Society of Boston, NY Ethical Culture Society, Freethought Assoc. of W. Michigan, Great Lakes Humanist Society, Tewksbury Hospital (MA), N. E. College, N. E. Skeptical Society, Worcester Humanists, Humanist Assoc. of MA, Richmond Humanists, Science and Theology News, WBAI radio, New York.
Maintain workshop tour for conferences, groups	Seek workshop opportunities	Workshops : American Humanist Association Conference
Naturalist Forum for outside speakers	Organize guest speaker series	Guest speakers : Paul Bloom at Harvard Science Center, Patricia Churchland
Establish live and web courses, train instructors	Promote course, develop web-based course	Course : Encountering Naturalism
Maintain active web presence with groups and forum	Expand online groups; add interactive forum	Online groups : Applied Naturalism, Naturalist Fellowship, CFN Psychotherapy, Philosophy Forum
Publish comprehensive curricula on naturalism	Complete and produce children's curriculum, develop for other age groups	Youth curriculum on naturalism : two chapters drafted; essay contest
Journal of Applied Naturalism	Continue newsletter, develop journal	Bimonthly newsletter : "Currents in Naturalism"
Maintain schedule of conference attendance and presentations	Apply for conference presentations and workshops	Conferences and presentations : Our Brains, Ourselves; American Humanist Association
Increase awareness of naturalism and its implications via media portrayals	Produce documentary, explore media opportunities, develop factual and fictional portrayals of naturalism	Media productions : Documentary proposal on naturalism drafted – "Science vs. the Soul"
----- Policy Development -----
Influence perceptions and discourse on target issues	Develop series of white papers in policy domains; complete book	Policy papers, book : journal and magazine articles, book outlined
Impact local, state, and national policy	Develop and fund initiatives	Initiatives : Council on Crime and Causality, conference on naturalism
Establish CFN as policy advisory resource	Issue press releases on current issues	Coverage of current events : "Currents in applied naturalism"
Maintain document resource center	Continue to collect & archive documents	Archive relevant policy documents : e.g., re causality and behavior

CFN Accomplishments & Objectives, continued:

Long-term Objectives	Intermediate Goals	Accomplishments
----- Community Building -----
Establish Boston-area Center for Naturalism office	Convene regular open houses	Convene two CFN open houses
Establish national Naturalist Alliance with local affiliated groups	Support and develop local constituencies of naturalists	Naturalist affinity groups: Boston Causality Club, Richmond Association for Reason & Naturalism
Establish Naturalist Alliance of local and national groups	Pursue collaborations with other groups to host speakers and events	Collaborate with other groups: coordinated talks with 38 Cameron, Harvard Secular Society
Advocate a critical naturalistic perspective to public discourse	Maintain on-going public venues for critical inquiry and discussion	Philosophy cafes: Davis Square, Lowell, W. Roxbury, Cambridge Saloon Salon
----- Organization and Fundraising -----
Fully interactive, professional web site	Develop professional look and navigation for site	CFN web site established
Maintain non-profit status	Maintain non-profit status	Non-profit status obtained
Maintain advisory board	Continue recruiting advisors	Advisory board recruited
Permanent core support	Maintain and expand donor base	Initial donations received
Permanent fundraising cycle	Develop fundraising plan and implement	Fundraising appeal drafted
Maintain grant support	Apply to granting agencies for operations and project support	Grant research initiated
Ongoing revenue from store	Build inventory, promote store	Online store established
----- Applied Naturalism -----
Publish and market tools and applications	Research and develop other tools and applications	Initiated CFN Therapy group
Consulting to individuals, groups, and business	Develop consulting wing	Brainstorm on consulting opportunities
----- Research -----
Publish findings in journals, newsletters	Conduct focus groups, survey, analyze data, write up findings	Developed questionnaire on science, self and causality
Maintain research archive, support dissemination of findings	Develop archive of research, disseminate findings	Links to relevant research papers